King University's Undergraduate Conference in Philosophy and Religion

February 26-27, 2027

King University
1350 King College Road
Bristol, TN 37620

Our conference provides a supportive environment in which undergraduate students from across the nation can present their original work in philosophy and/or religion. Papers on any topic within these fields will be considered for acceptance. Accepted authors should prepare for a 30-minute presentation—20 minutes for your paper presentation and 10 minutes for Q & A.

The $250.00 Errol Rohr Prize in Philosophy and Religion will be awarded to the best paper. Participants will also enjoy a keynote presentation by Dr. Thomas Senior from the University of Arkansas.

Submit your papers via email to Jasmine Barker at jmbarker@king.edu. Acceptance will be determined by blind review by a jury of scholars from various institutions. Accordingly, please submit the following as three separate attachments to your email:

- 1) An abstract of no more than 150 words. The abstract should contain the title of your paper but no identifying information.
- 2) The Paper: Prepare for 20 minutes of reading, which is approximately 7 -10 pages of double-spaced type. Include the title of the paper on the top of the first page. Remove identifying information from the body of your work.
- 3) A separate coversheet that includes the author's name, institution, email, and phone number.

Submissions must be received by Monday, December 10, 2026.
