Meteorite

The Undergraduate Philosophy Journal of the University of Michigan

Meteorite is a student-run undergraduate philosophy journal affiliated with the Philosophy Department at the University of Michigan. Our mission is to promote the discussion of novel and thought-provoking philosophical ideas by providing students from diverse backgrounds an opportunity to have their original work published in an academic journal. Following a brief period of inactivity, we are now accepting undergraduate philosophy papers for consideration for our Fall 2017 issue.

Submission Deadline: All papers must be submitted for our consideration by no later than October 10, 2017.

Submission Guidelines: Email all submissions to meteorite@umich.edu with the subject line '[Last Name, First Name] - Meteorite 2017' and adhere to the following guidelines.

> Abstract: Submissions may include an abstract of no more than 200 words - this is encouraged but is not required.

> Citation Style: Chicago Style citations with notes and a bibliography is prefered, but other citation styles are also acceptable. (Note: authors may be asked to adjust the format of their citations if their paper is selected for publication.)

> Cover Page: Include a cover page with (1) your name, (2) email address, and (3) affiliated academic institution. Identifying information should appear nowhere else in the paper to ensure the impartiality of our blind review process.

> File Format: Please submit papers in a .doc, .docx, or .pdf format and title the document '[Last Name, First Name] - Meteorite 2017.'

> Length: Submissions should not exceed 6000 words in length and should be in double-spaced, Times New Roman 12-pt font. Shorter papers are also acceptable.

> Originality: Our journal is committed to publishing only original student work. Plagiarism of any kind will disqualify your paper from consideration for publication.

> Topic: Meteorite will be accepting papers on any philosophical topic and from any discipline for the upcoming issue.

Authors of papers submitted before the deadline will receive notifications from the staff at Meteorite. Submitting a paper to multiple journals for consideration is allowed, but please keep us informed of its publication status. We look forward to reading your submissions.
